Msgr. Kaznocha Dies, Pastor at St. Hedwig

The Rev. Msgr. Frederic R. Kaznocha, 71, retired pastor of St. Hedwig Parish in Manchester for 25 years, died Friday morning in a local hospital after a long illness.

Born in Lowell, Mass., the son of the late John and Julia (Madej) Kaznocha, Msgr. Kaznocha was ordained to the priesthood in 1933 by the late Bishop John B. Peterson. He served as associate pastor of St. Hedwig Parish in Manchester from 1933-1936, and as pastor of St. Joseph Parish in Claremont from 1936-1952. In May 1952, Fr. Kaznocha was named pastor of St. Hedwig, where he served until his retirement in February 1977. Since his retirement, he had resided at 191 Ash St. in Manchester Named to papal honors in 1965 with the title of the reverend monsignor, Msgr. Kaznocha also served on the Diocesan School Board in the early 1960s.

Msgr. Kaznocha is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Walter (Jane) Kazimierski of Chicago, Sister Mary Presentia, cssf, and Sister Mary Victima, cssf, of the Felician Sisters of Enfield, Conn.; one brother, Edward L. Kaznocha of Waltham, Mass.; a nephew, and a niece, and two grandnephews.

MSGR. KAZNOCHA

Friends may call at the St. Hedwig Convent, 151 Walnut St., this afternoon from 2-4.

Msgr. Kaznocha's body will then be transferred to St. Hedwig Parish Church for the mass of Jesus Christ, the Eternal High Priest, this evening at 7.

The Most Rev. Odore J. Gendron, DD, bishop of Manchester, will be the principal celebrant of the mass of Christian burial Monday morning at 10:30. Burial will be in St. Hedwig Cemetery in Manchester.

PRAYER

O GENTLEST Heart of Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy judgment but let some drops of Thy Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames and do Thou O Merciful Savior send Thy angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace.
